

Screening Algorithms for Clinicians to Assess for Behavioral Health Conditions During Pregnancy:

Source	Title, hyperlink and publication date	Description
Massachusetts Child Psychiatry Access Project (MCPAP)	Key Clinical Considerations When Assessing the Mental Health of Pregnant and Postpartum Women Oct 2015 https://www.mcpapformoms.org/Docs/Key%20Clinical%20Considerations%2010%206%2015.pdf	Algorithm for clinical considerations when assessing for behavioral health conditions in pregnant and postpartum women. Includes thoughts of harming baby, suicidal ideation, risk factors and suggestions on how to talk about perinatal depression with mothers, indications for medication management.
MCPAP	Depression Screening Algorithm for Obstetric Providers April 2016 https://www.mcpapformoms.org/Docs/Depression%20Screening%20Algorithm%20for%20OB%27s%2009.30.14.pdf	Depression screening algorithm for obstetricians.
MCPAP	Recommended Steps Before Beginning Antidepressant Medication During Pregnancy and Lactation October 2015 https://www.mcpapformoms.org/Docs/Recommended%20Steps%20and%20AD%20Tx%20Algorithm%2010%206%2015.pdf	Algorithm to assess for need to begin antidepressant medications during pregnancy and lactation.
MCPAP	Bipolar Disorder Screen July 2014 https://www.mcpapformoms.org/Docs/Bipolar%20Disorder%20Screen%2007%204%2014.pdf	Algorithm to screen for bipolar disorder; to be used in conjunction with the MCPAP Depression Screening Algorithm to determine whether or not the individual has bipolar disorder.